

HB 1404 -- LABELING OF FOOD

SPONSOR: Ellington

This bill requires all food and food products sold in Missouri that are derived from cloned animals to be labeled indicating that the food is or contains products derived from cloned animals. A cloned animal is an animal produced by replacing all genetic material in an egg with a mature cell containing the complete genetic code from the donor.